A PREACHER WITH $200!

How Robbers Tried to Get Away with the Money—How the Minister Got Away with the Robbers.

From the New York Tribune.

Good Dr. Rhea, pastor of a church in Davenport, Iowa, went to church last Saturday night prepared to sleep the sleep of the righteous. In his pantaloons pocket was a wallet containing in the neighborhood of $300, money which he had received from various members of his church as contributions to the benevolent societies. This was a little more money than a minister is accustomed to get hold of at one time, and consequently, just as the Doctor was turning in, the thought of burglar struck him, and acting on a fortunate impulse he kicked his pantaloons in under the bed out of sight or reach. Then he lay down and slept. In an instant he knew that a burglar was in the room. He turned over toward the side at which the man was standing, throwing the bed clothes off him as he did so, raised himself on his left elbow, and shouted: "Get out, you rascal! Immediately he felt a hand drop on his shoulder, heard the click-click of a revolver, felt

COLD STEEL AT HIS TEMPLE, and heard a determined but excited voice say: "Be still, or I'll blow your brains out." He saw that the man meant business, and concluded to remain in just the position he then was till it suited the burglar to have him otherwise. The latter kept repeating his warning, and was plainly heard by Mrs. Rhea, who took in the situation at once, and trying to strike a light with a match started toward her husband's room. The second robber heard her coming, and at once pulled the door to, shutting her out. She was naturally in an agony of fright, thinking her husband was being murdered. After the slamming of the door, burglar No. 2 told his pal to keep the Doctor quiet till he got out with the spoils, and then gathering up the bundle of clothes on the lounge, he ran down the stairs and gave a signal to the man with the revolver, who was at a bound. The pastor's watch was taken, but not the money in the pantaloons underneath the bed.

NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST.

During a third of the year the sun is never visible at Balmoral Castle.

Japan has fine macadamized roads, on which the bicycle is coming into high favor.

The Sheriff of Blair county, Pa., levied upon a graveyard, and has advertised it for sale.

There is only one woollen mill in the State of Texas, and it netted to its owner $21,000 last year. It is situated in New Braunfels.

The most active statesman in New Zealand is Sir Julius Vogel, a Jew, now Agent-General in London, who is about to offer himself as a candidate for the House of Commons.

Seventy-two thousand dollars is believed to have been the highest price ever given for a horse in England. It was given by its richest peer, the Duke of Westminster.

The Rev. William H. Jeffries of Camden was not mentally affected by theological study and controversy; but a year of the life insurance business so deranged his mind that he attempted suicide.

Russian ladies have just begun to take part in boat races. In Saratoff the first prize, a golden bracelet, and the second, a golden breastpin, were adjudged to the two young ladies who handled the rudder.

The nominal strength of Russia's army is four millions, but she could not march much more than eight hundred thousand, and exclusive of the Cossacks, no more than two millions are to be regarded as trained soldiers. The army is fearfully addicted to drink.

Our Jaqueth defaced the white exterior of a church at Bernardston, Mass., with big pictures of devils in red paint. At that time he was an unrepentant sinner; but before his arrest he was converted, and on that account the church officers secured his release without punishment.

It was observed that the Widow Taylor, while in a Greenville, Miss., court as plaintiff in a lawsuit, kept one hand in her pocket while the defendant was testifying. An investigation showed that she had held of a pistol, which she intended to use if the witness made any departure from the truth.

A fourth Chinese theatre is being erected in San Francisco. It will be a substantial iron building, seating 2500 persons. There used to be hot rivalry, and the three theatres lost money. Then the competing managers pooled their issues in the Wing Ti Ping or Company of Eternal Peace, but the peace has already been broken by the new project.

The wealthiest man in Kalamazoo, Mich., was approached in the street by an excited little boy, who said: "Mister, my sister is in the flume, over there, and if you'll get her out I'll give you a dollar." The man rescued the imperilled child. A few days afterward the boy entered his office and put on his desk a dollar in small coin, having broken open a toy bank and sold a hobby horse to raise the amount.

A War That Never Ends.

Of the war waged between man and beast in India the yearly statistics are once more published, and it would seem that during 1877 the slaughter was terrible. Nineteen thousand six hundred and ninety-five people were killed—46 by elephants, 819 by tigers, 200 by leopards, 85 by bears, 564 by wolves, 24 by hyenas, 1180 by other wild animals, and 16,777 by snakes. Fifty-three thousand cattle, moreover, succumbed in the fight. On the other side, under stimulus of a reward amounting to more than £10,000, 22,851 wild beasts and 127,395 snakes have been killed; a large total in itself, but small when the losses of man and domestic animals are taken into consideration.

A hog-scraping machine which has just been tested in Chicago worked very satisfactorily. A hog was killed, placed in the machine, and almost in an instant came out with only a few odd hairs on his head and legs. Seven hogs were passed through the machine in fifty-seven seconds, and each came out as hairless as could be desired. With a few improvements, the machine is expected to finish off 6000 hogs in ten hours.

MILITARY TOURNAMENT.

There seems to be some little dissatisfaction in military circles about the justness of the award to the Carson Guard for being the best drilled company. A gentleman of this city who was present stated that it took the National Guard just 40 minutes, the Washington 45, and the Carson Guard one hour and five minutes. As the rules specified that each company should have but 40 minutes, he does not think it fair to have awarded the prize to the Carson Guard.—Virginia Stage.

The judges in the contest were General T. J. Clunie, commander of a brigade in the California Nationals; Lieut. W. E. Chesley of Sacramento, an officer in the same body and Col. Younger, whom everybody believes to be fair-minded. The drill was praiseworthy and all did their best, but the Carson team certainly maneuvered better and kept time and place better than any other company. The judges were strangers to all parties so far as we know, and had no prejudice whatever. It will be very foolish indeed for any of the companies to lay up a grievance. They could not all take a prize and the company from Carson could have had as big a "growl" if either of the others got it. There is nothing in the Society's programme about the drill being limited to forty minutes.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Mammoth City bids fair to rival Bodie in the richness of its ore. There was great excitement in Mammoth last Wednesday over a new development in the Mammoth mine. Ore was found that it is estimated would assay $120,000 to the ton. The Lake Mining Review thus describes it:

All hands agreed—even the oldest miners—that nothing like it in the nature of gold quartz had ever been dug out of the earth. The specimens were not small pieces as big as walnuts, such as are usually shown, but huge chunks, some of them weighing as high as ten, fifteen and twenty pounds, and one great boulder going even as high as fifty pounds. All were literally alive with gold. On every side gleamed huge "spatishes," some as big as peach leaves, while all over and through the porous-looking rock wood a solid incrustation of frosty-looking gold, closely bound up with yellowish, iron-stained quartz. The size of the lumps and their formation indicated plainly the approximate size of the vein from which they came, and showed that it was no narrow knife blade streak.

The Petaluma Courier is informed that salmon trout are plentiful in Petaluma and Sonoma creeks. One weighing twelve pounds was killed with rocks by an individual last week, and several were shot with a rifle.

Thomas Tregulice, a worthy young man of Amador county, died last Wednesday stood in the road talking to a young lady. He held a loaded gun in his hand with the muzzle turned towards him. It was discharged in some way and the charge of shot entered the worthy young man's breast. He will recover.

The bear ranch of John Webber, in Verburgo canyon, just north of Los Angeles, was attacked on the 9th by two grizzly bears. Webber killed one of the beasts by a shot through the heart from a revolver, and drove the other away after firing half a dozen shots into his body from revolver and shotgun.

The dwelling house of James O'Neil, about half a mile from Stockton, was burned Thursday night. The wife of Mr. O'Neil, who was inside the house, was unable to escape, and was burned to death. Her trunk and skull were all that remained of the body. O'Neil was found leaning against the fence, under the influence of liquor. The cause of the fire is unknown, but is supposed to be the bursting of a coal-oil lamp.

Comparative Speed of Men and Horses.

From the New York Sun.

The Milk River massacre gives an opportunity to compare the speed of a man with that of a horse, at long distance. Rankin, the scout who took the news from the place of ambush to Rawlins, made the distance, 160 miles, on horseback in twenty-four hours. He probably had anything but smooth country through which to ride. Whether he was able to change horses does not appear. Life or death to the little band, who were entrenched, depended on his speed, and he doubtless did his best. Rowell, the winner of the Astley belt, made last week, on a smooth track, and under the most favorable circumstances, just 127 miles in the same length of time. Hamel, in the London match, ran 137 miles in twenty-four hours, and in the velocipede contest last spring, the elder De Noelle rode 217 miles in twenty-four hours.

What does "free thinking" mean? If anything, it means thought不受制于 emotion, passion or prejudice; in short, pure reasoning.

It may occur to many readers of the Post that the religion that won't bear thinking about is not worth having.

The Ohio election comes off tomorrow. Great interest attaches to the result. Republicans are confident of victory.

Why the Locusts Flourish.

New York Tribune.

It has been gravely asserted by men who have given the subject serious and patient study, that the locust and grasshopper pests, which, from time to time, devastate some of our western States and Territories, are due to the wholesale destruction of the game birds of the Rocky Mountain slopes and the Mississippi Valley. Prof. Riley, State Entomologist of Missouri, declared that one grouse would in a season consume eggs and larvae enough to destroy the crops upon one hundred acres of land.

JOTTINGS.

The Grand Jury met to-day.
The entire time of the District Court is taken up until November 5.
Another d. d. arrested this morning.

W. L. Needham will auction on Wednesday a lot of fine furniture. See fifty cent ad.

The inquest upon Mike Greedy, the man found dead in the river, will be held this evening.

Mr. Littlefield, of the Elko Post, visited the GAZETTE office to-day. He goes to Carson as a delegate to the Grand Lodge of Good Templars.

The most interesting and attractive exhibit at the pavilion took no prizes, not even a diploma. Beyond a doubt, the finest and altogether the most pleasing display was—the ladies.

When the Con. Esmeralda mill gets its fine concentrators to work, the Golden Fleece fires up its furnaces, and the new water works begin to play, Reno ought to be a pretty good town.

Mr. Beemer's youngest boy was missing this afternoon and an anxious search was made for him, as it was feared that he might have fallen into a ditch. The little fellow was found, safe and sound, behind the new school house.

PERSONAL.

Mark Parish is confined to the house by illness.

Robert Lindsay, the well-known Comstock lawyer, is in town.

Judge Harris, of Carson, Register of the U. S. Land Office, visited Reno yesterday.

J. F. Aitken, A. H. Wilbur, T. F. Laycock, G. G. Brooks and Eva Barnes go to Carson to-morrow to attend the Grand Lodge of Good Templars.

Alice McGinley was married on Wednesday last in Aurora, to G. Huskins, leading musician of the McGinley troupe. The young couple have the best wishes of many in Reno.

R. J. Auld, Deputy Supreme Master Workman, is in Reno, where he proposes to start a lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen. There are 7,000 members of that society in California.

A Lucky Woman.

The publishers of the "housekeeper" are bent on the general introduction of that helpful and beautiful household monthly and they make some extraordinary offers in their premium lists—gloves, ties, neckties, napkins, table cloths and spreads, tidiés, silver thin-sheens, and a variety of articles which ladies like. But the most liberal offer is this: They will send the "housekeeper" one year and three months this is to January 1st, 1881, free to the first lady from any post office who sends 25 cents in postage stamps; which barely covers the cost of postage and mailing. Any lady who sends and fails to be first will receive the Monthly four months, or her money back as she directs. The regular subscription price of the monthly is 75 cents a year and cheap at that. Sample copies with full particulars, free. Address "The Housekeeper," Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Thoughtful Preparation for Death.

The Winnemucca Silver State says that C. W. Hymer, who was sentenced on Wednesday, in the District Court, to be executed on the 20th of November, immediately after his sentence informed the officers that he was ready, and upon being taken to his cell, penned the following, in a bold, steady hand:

Under sentence of death.—Mr. G. Miller: Please send me the usual articles: One roll of butter, six pounds of white sugar, one can of honey, one paper of tea—English breakfast.

Respectfully, C. W. HYMER.

Another Week's Run.

The weather promises well for the Carson fair. There will be very fine rains there, and a day there will be a good investment to one who has the time to spare. Every one in Reno and the Truckee Valley should try to make that fair a success as well as the State fair, because, with two good meetings on this side, a great deal better here, and three times as many visitors from California, will come a world do so for only one. This would be laying a foundation which will last It would be building for years ahead, and would be wise, enjoyable and beneficial.

DISTRICT COURT.

JUDGE S. D. KING PRESIDING.

The District Court met this morning pursuant to adjournment of last Friday. The following business was transacted:

G. P. Funk vs A. & J. Funk—Action for foreclosure of mortgage. Ordered that decree be entered according to prayer of complaint.

State of Nevada vs Tong Wai—Appeal from Justice Court. Tried verdict: not guilty.

A Young Man's Sad Mistake.

It was very dark last evening, as a certain young man has occasion to remember. He went to call upon a beautiful and estimable young lady, as is his custom of evenings. When he reached the garden gate he was pained to find that the fair maiden whom he loved was not leaning over the pickets, listening for his dear footsteps, which, by the way, can be heard for a considerable distance. No, she was not there as was her wont. He opened the gate and his tutu beaters pensively ground the gravel on the path, as he slowly and with a heavy heart moved toward the house. But suddenly the idol of his heart emerged from the shrubbery which concealed her and stood before him, with a little shriek that was, he knew, not half so much apprehension as delight. In an instant she was folded and pressed to his manly bosom, and a shower of kisses fell upon her lips, before a word was spoken. But when the girl's mother could at last get a word in, that young man dropped her as he would a hot coal, and fled frantically through the gate, which shall swing again behind him nevermore.

Amusements.

Saturday evening's performance was the last given in Reno by Piper's Opera House Company, and to-night they appear in Carson. The Juvenile Pinafore troupe have by this time dispersed among their sisters and their cousins and their aunts; down by the "ocean биле." It is doubtful if Reno could stand any more Pinafore. There is no prospect of any entertainment at the Theater this week. Prof. Scott's soiree Saturday night was well attended, and was, as usual, an enjoyable affair. Next Saturday evening the Reform Club will hold its customary meeting, interrupted last week by the festivities attending the Fair. Senator Fowning will then deliver his address on France, and will doubtless have a full house. Readings, recitations and music will be given as usual. The Reform Club meetings should be better attended. They are enteraining, cost nothing, and are open to everybody. Complaint is made that people don't go early enough.

When one takes a look around and sees the mountains all white with snow he begins to think it will not be long before skating on the river will be one of the amusements.

The Pavilion Premiums.

The work of awarding premiums is going on slowly. The pavilion was quite well stocked and in many cases the judges were very much perplexed.

Ross & Bauer were awarded the medal for furniture. The trustees re-versed the decision and gave it to Sanders & Neale, who said it was bor-rowed furniture in San Francisco which did not get into the pavilion until Wednesday or Thursday. The trustees also reversed the award in the case of flowers and plants, giving the medal to R. P. Chapin instead of Mrs. Geiss. As soon as the list is ready it will be made public.

Proceedings in the Justice Court.

In the Justice's Court this morning J. C. Cook was sent up for 12½ days for disturbing the peace. The charge of vagrancy entered against G. J. Lewis was not sustained, and the prisoner was discharged. R. Johnson was found guilty of disturbing the peace and will be sentenced to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

A Long Drive.

J. Herne came into Reno a day or two ago from the State of Iowa, having driven the entire distance with his family in his wagon. The trip occupied two months. He is going to Sacramento, and unless the snow is too deep, will drive over the Summit.

These suits are worth double the present price. Banner Brothers have the finest stock to be found on this coast, embracing everything a man can get on his back together with all sorts of trunks and valises to put in.

They have just received an immense stock of Spring and Summer goods. Call and see them. Corner of C and Taylor streets, Virginia, Nev. BANNER BROTHERS. Jan 19

Almost Discouraged.

An old lady from Churchill county, who had buried three childless husbands, was bewailing the loss of her fourth lover, who had died suddenly.

Her friend suggested that one at her time of life (73) ought not to let matters of that kind occupy her mind. She answered: "Aaa, I have been married off and on for fifty years, and never had any children, not one;" (he) "the old lady nearly broke down" and I did hope to marry again and raise up a family, but almost discouraged."

Court of Justice Young.

Business is now active in the Justice Court. John Doe and Richard Ross came up for trial this morning on a charge of vagrancy. The trial of Miss Lottie Williams and Gracie Forbes, on a charge of grand larceny, was set for this afternoon. Quite a number of civil cases are in process.

Doing Well.

Annie Ross, the four-year-old child of Orrin C. Ross, who fell from the grand stand last Saturday, is doing well and will recover. She struck the ground on the left side of her head, and it was feared that the consequences would be very serious.

Sir Astley Cooper's Vital Restorative.

The great English remedy—has made more names of Norovis Dibility, Seminal Weakness, Lost Manhood, nocturnal emissions, impotency, inability for mental labor, despondency, and such diseases as are induced by youthful follies and excesses, than all other medicines combined.

It is not a stimulant nor excitant, is perfectly safe to take, is not a quack nostrum, and produces results that are wonderful.

Why will you suffer? Send to A. E. Minie, M. D., No. 1 Kearny street, San Francisco, or the Restorative, and be cured. Price, 50 cents per bottle. Four times the quantity, $1.00. Apply a bottle. Dr. Minie treats all private diseases successfully.
